What happens next?

Your application will be reviewed by our group coordinator, Elizabeth, Youth Librarian. She will contact you to discuss the group, and determine if you'll become a member. Members will sign a membership agreement and waiver to allow the library to use media of members in public places to promote the library, tween services, and the tween advisory group.

You're Invited to be a TWEEN Leader!

What's a Tween Leader?

Tween Leaders give input to one of our youth services librarians about tween services at Corvallis-Benton County Public Library.

They:

- ★ give advice about the materials we buy, the space we have, and the events and programs we offer for tweens
- ★ help out at tween events and programs
- ★ attend regular meetings
- ★ write book reviews to help guide other tweens to great reads
- ★ speak up in the community about what the library's doing for tweens
- ★ help make the library the best place it can be for tweens!

Wanna Join Us?

Are you...

- ★ In 4th-6th grade?
- ★ Interested in the library and volunteering?
- ★ A leader among your peers, even if they don't know it yet?
- ★ A reader? A gamer? A crafter? A movie fan? A pop culture expert?

Here's How!

Apply to be a Tween Leader—contact Youth Services at Corvallis-Benton County Public Library or stop by the Youth Services desk for an application. Our Tween Leader Coordinator is Elizabeth Johnson (contact info below).
