

Corvallis-Benton County
PUBLIC LIBRARY

You are invited to participate in the Corvallis-Benton County Public Library Own Voices Challenge for adults this spring. Own Voices is an opportunity to engage with stories of life in a marginalized group.

Read books, listen to audiobooks, and watch movies that fit these badge themes listed on the back. Track your progress and win your choice of a Black voices or antiracism book while supplies last.

There is no better way to find commonality with someone than to walk a while in their shoes. Watch for our lists of suggested titles, share your own favorites, and take a journey with us this spring into a world of #ownvoices!
